

MARKETS, CLASSIFIED AND REAL ESTATE

The Markets.

Wheat at Chicago Advances.
Chicago, Ill., May 20.—Fear of black rust led today to an upturn in prices for wheat. Bullish crop reports from Indiana tended also to cause an advance. Opening prices, which varied from 1/4 off to 1/4 up, were followed by gains and then moderate reaction. The close was unsettled at 1/4 to 1/4 net advance.

Corn values hardened in sympathy with wheat. After opening a shade to 1/4 higher, the market continued to rise.

The close was steady at 1/4 to 1/4 net advance. Oats reflected the strength of other cereals.

Firmness of grain and hogs gave some support to provisions.

TODAY IN STOCKS

New York, May 20.—Stocks made further recovery by noon from their early declines, particularly the specialties. Bethlehem Steel rising six points. Standard railways, United States Steel and the copper stocks off their initial heaviness. Later, however, the entire list reacted and grew dull.

Bonds were heavy.
Stock prices tended downward again at the outset of today's market, the only exceptions being certain war specialties, which recorded gains of 1 to 3 points. Standard shares, including the speculative leaders, were fractionally lower. Secondary quotations were better, the general list showing marked recovery.

The closing was steady.
